On this eighteenth Sunday after Trinity we rejoice that, whatever the day or date, God is with us. Whatever our background, God is with us. Whatever mood we are in, God is with us. Whatever may be troubling us, God is with us.

Faithful Lord,

A message from L'Arche Manchester,

From Monday 5th October until Sunday 11th October the Community is taking part in our own 500 Mile Challenge. The objectives are to walk, run, cycle, swim 500 miles collaboratively and raise £2,000 while doing so. The money raised will be split between L'Arche International in honour of L'Arche Family Day, where we celebrate being an International Federation and recognise the real financial hardships of many Communities across the world, and our own Community here in Manchester as we work out how to manage the unexpected costs associated with Covid.

We'd love it if you can support our Challenge.

You can like it and share on our facebook page: <https://en-gb.facebook.com/LArcheManchester/>

You can retweet it on twitter: @larchemanc

You can like it on Instagram: <https://www.instagram.com/larchemanchester>

And you can find out more and donate here:

New Fortnightly Bible Study

More details of this are to come soon but if you'd like to be involved please let Sam or Dyfrig know.

How's 2020 been for you so far?

Andy is after your thoughts. We want to put a short video clip in each week's video service where one of you tells us how it's been and what your hopes are for the future. The video will last for around two minutes and you can either film yourself or Andy can video you outside your home. Please let us know if you'd be willing to take part.

As a church we want to use Padlet as a way of sharing resources etc. We get extra boards if people sign up using this referral code:

<https://padlet.com/referrals/SacredTrinity>

You don't have to sign up for padlet to use it but it would help us if a few people did. This is a free resource but it is limited so the more people sign up the more boards we get.

To join in the discussion and look at extra resources on our theme of gratitude go here:
